The Below 100 Officer Safety Program
Sept. 19, 2019*

Pick one of two sessions

MISSION

To permanently eliminate preventable line-of-duty deaths and injuries through innovative training and awareness; to influence law enforcement culture by providing training resources and expert discussion on identifying the leading causes and current trends in line of duty deaths and serious injuries.

The Below 100 training classes focus on bringing the national number of line-of-duty deaths to less than 100 each year. The sessions' focus is on ways officers can save their lives and the lives of those around them.

Instructor: Thomas Dirlam served with the MI Dept of State Police (1986-2016) in numerous capacities including Det. 1st Lt./Commanding Ofc in their Forensic Laboratories, Dept. Forensic Science Division Board Representative, Det. Lt. with the Latent Print Sub-unit where is was qualified as an expert and an Instructor at Henry Ford Community College, Schoolcraft College and their Police Academy. He has been a National Core Instructor with Below 100 since 2013.
